CALLING FOR INNOVATIVE PROPOSALS

Sub: RGUKT- Calling for innovative proposals from faculty and students teams – Reg.

***

University wishes to identify and encourage available talent in different fields of knowledge. As part of this initiative faculty and students are advised to submit proposals on:

1. Web designing to RGUKT and its constituent units.
2. Attendance management system for both faculty and students.
3. Management system for catch all maintenance cell for each of the RGUKT campuses.

The proposals must be from a group headed by a faculty and if a particular student group wishes to submit a proposal, it is also welcome . Every proposal should contain a brief outline together with details on strategy, approach, and outcomes.

Proposals must be sent to the Director, CETLS through the Directors of the campus concerned. An advance copy may be marked to the Headquarters before end of January, 2022.

The University will fund the proposals considered relevant to the university along with a suitable award in recognition of the passion and potential of the faculty and students who respond.
